

CARTEXPO

The largest vintage postcards show in France

Cartexpo is the most important Vintage Postcards Show in France for professional dealers, where you will meet french and international customers. The visitors are curious, keen and selective, and asking for a wide range of postcards, in particular french regionalism, subjects, foreign postcards, illustrators. Many foreign dealers participate in the show as visitors or as exhibitors, which make Cartexpo the international show you must attend. We will be very happy to welcome you!

Venue: The Espace Champerret is a key venue for shows and exhibitions in Paris, due to location, visibility and easy access for the public (Metro less than 200m and parking directly below the Espace Champerret).

Basic stand : 200,00 € (only for one show, or two consecutive shows)
Simple stand : 535,00 €
Double stand : 870,00 €
Triple stand : 1070.00 €

Access: Easy access via the Ring road (exit : Porte de champerret). A large advertising board indicates the place of the show.

Unloading: Very easy! You enter the Espace Champerret's access ramp on your right side in the middle of Rue Jacques Ibert, and take your vehicle as close as possible to the hall, where you can unload on the same level.

Parking: When you have unloaded, you can park at the Vinci Parking (Max height 1,90m), situated below the Espace Champerret, or at the parking of the Levallois market (Max height between 1m90 and 2m60), distance 300m.

Security: The Security Staff will be present at all opening hours and also when closed and during the night.

Catering: Bar serving refreshments and light meals during the show.

Publicity: Advertising in French and English specialized magazines and massive distribution of pre-printed envelopes and flyers. All exhibitors will receive a number of free tickets/invitations for their special customers etc. (admission is 4€, free for youngsters under 18). A few weeks prior to the show, the list of standholders and their contact details are published on the website (www.cartexpo.fr), so customers may contact you with special requests. If we receive requests/wants from customers, we forward this to all exhibitors.
